

GLOBAL X FUNDS NOW ON DORSEY WRIGHT PLATFORM

NEW YORK – August 24, 2011 – Global X Funds, the New York based provider of exchange traded funds, today announced the partnership with Dorsey Wright & Associates' (DWA), an independent registered investment advisory firm. The ETF provider is pairing up with DWA to market the Global Opportunities portfolio, a global portfolio based off of relative strength.

Dorsey Wright's relative strength methodology has long been a vehicle for advisors utilizing ETFs. Global X Funds passively managed ETFs, broken down into Developed Markets, Emerging Markets, Commodity Producers, Income Producers and Special Opportunities fund suites, will be selectively available in the portfolio.

“Dorsey Wright’s expertise in relative strength and technical analysis provides an additional resource to our investors’ portfolio allocation tactics,” said Bruno del Ama, chief executive officer of Global X Funds.

"We are rarely interested in timing precise tops and bottoms in a market, but are very interested in finding the strongest of performance trends within an asset class, and staying with them. We feel our relative strength-based approach is as adept a means for identifying such trends as exists today, and when applied in a disciplined fashion can help investors get the most out of a dynamic fund lineup such as Global X's," said Tom Dorsey, President Dorsey, Wright & Associates.
